WAR DEPARTMENT STIRRED.

By The Recent Acts of Shafter And Roosevelt.

ALGERS' DIGNITY IS OFFENDED.

Shafter Made Public Kent's Report And Roosevelt Has Written Letters—Both Rebuked.

Washington, Aug. 4—The War Department was unusually stirred up today by the recent acts of Shafter and Roosevelt, and these officers have incurred the severe displeasure of Secretary Alger and presumably the President. Shafter's offence is his action in making public Kent's report describing the conduct of his division, and letters written by Roosevelt and division and corps commanders appealing to the commanding general for the withdrawal of their troops from Cuba. Roosevelt has offended the Secretary of War by writing him a personal letter in which he compares the Rough Riders to state troops, to the latter's disparagement. Both Shafter and Roosevelt have been severely rebuked and censured by the Secretary of War. The letters referred to came in a dispatch to the War Department today, and a council of war was held. It had been intended that Santiago troops should be withdrawn as soon as the yellow fever was stamped out, but now steps have been taken for the immediate movement of part of the troops to Montauk Point without delay, and in view of the revelations made by Roosevelt and other officers, other forces will be brought north with as little delay as possible.

Roosevelt's letter and that of other commanders at Santiago said that the army must be moved at once or perish. Yellow fever was not epidemic, but soldiers were wasted by malarial fever and would be unable to withstand an epidemic of yellow fever which would probably come.

The following are portions of Roosevelt's letter to Shafter: "There is no possible occasion for not shipping practically the entire command north at once. Yellow fever cases are very few in the cavalry division, where I command one of the two brigades, and not one true case of yellow fever has occurred in the division except among men sent to the hospital at Siboney, where they have, I believe, contracted it. But in this division there have been 1,500 cases of malarial fever. Not a man has died from it, but the whole command is so weakened and shattered as to be ripe for dying like sheep when a real yellow fever epidemic, instead of a fake epidemic like the present, strikes us, as it is bound to if we stay here at the height of the sickly season.

"Quarantine against malarial fever is much like quarantining against tooth ache. All of us are certain, as soon as the authorities at Washington appreciate fully the condition of the army to be sent home. If we are kept here it will, in all human probability, mean appalling disaster, for the surgeons here estimate that over half the army, if kept here during the sickly season, will die. We can be moved north, if moved at once, with absolute safety to the country, although, of course, it would have been infinitely better if we had been moved north or to Porto Rico two weeks ago. If there were any object in keeping us here we would face yellow fever with as much indifference as we faced bullets. But there is no object in it. I write only because I cannot see our men who have fought so bravely and who have endured hardship and danger so uncomplainingly, go to destruction without striving, so far as lies in me, to avert a doom as fearful as it is unnecessary and undeserved."

In a petition signed by commanding officers it is stated that they are of unanimous opinion that this army should be at once taken out of the island of Cuba and sent to some point on the northern seacoast of the United States; that it can be done without danger to the people of the United States; that yellow fever in the army at present is not epidemic; that there are a few sporadic cases; but that the army is disabled by malarial fever to an extent that its efficiency is destroyed, and that it is in condition to be practically destroyed by an epidemic of yellow fever, which is sure to come in the near future. This army must be moved at once or perish. As the army can be safely moved now, persons responsible for preventing such will be responsible for unnecessary loss of many thousands of lives. Our opinions are the result of careful personal observation, and they are also based on the unanimous opinion of our medical officers with the army, who understand the situation absolutely."

Secretary Alger has reprimanded Col. Roosevelt for what he considers a separate and distinct offense. July 23rd Roosevelt wrote a letter to Alger similar in tone to the one addressed to Shafter, in which he said:

"My Dear Mr. Secretary: I am writing with the knowledge and approval of Gen. Wheeler. We earnestly hope that you will send us, most of the regulars, at any rate a cavalry division, including the rough riders, who are as good as any regulars, and three times as good as any state troops, to Porto Rico. There are one thousand eight hundred effective men in this division. If those who were left behind (in Florida) were joined to them we could land in Porto Rico in this cavalry division close to four thousand men who would easily be worth any ten thousand national guards armed with black powder Springfields or other weapons."

The following reply was cabled to Col. Roosvelt:

"Your letter of the 23d is received. The regular army, volunteer army and rough riders have done well; but I suggest that, unless you want to spoil the effect of your victory, you make no invidious comparisons. Rough riders are no better than other volunteers. They had advantage in their arms, for which they ought to be very grateful. R. A. Alger,

"Secretary of War."

The publication of letters addressed to Gen. Shafter has caused more important and significant action than a rebuke from Shafter for making the communications public. McKinly and Alger were indignant, not only on account of the poor judgment of the commander of the Fifth corps in permitting such startling intelligence to go to newspapers in America, but on account of the effect it might have on the Spanish government in consideration of the demands made by the United States, considerable anxiety was expressed in official circles today that the letters about the sanitary condition at Santiago would be cabled abroad and brought to the attention of the Spanish government. It was said by a prominent official that Spain might see in the communications reasons why she could safely decline to accede to the American terms, as the letters addressed to Shafter showed a condition among the American troops favorable to a continuance of the war: so in order to prevent pualication abroad of the two letters, censorship over press dispatches to newspapers outside of the Unied States was re established today by direction of the war department.

Uneasiness in England.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM

London, Aug. 5—There is great uneasiness on all sides here in view of the Chinese situation, which is regarded as bringing England and Russia within measurable distance of open conflict.

Sanitary Conditions.

By wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Augst 5—Gen. Shafter reports the following sanitary condition at Santiago for Wednesday: Total sick, 3,778; total cases of fever, 2,696; new cases of fever, 449; deaths, 9.

Hobson the Attraction.

New York, Aug. 4—The benefit for the New York soldiers and sailors' families' protective association tonight at the Metropolitan opera house was more in the nature of a reception to Lieutenant Hobson, Minister Woodford and Captain Philip, of the Texas, than a benefit. The opera house was jammed with people, almost five thousand being present. Lieutenant Hobson's introduction was the signal for a continuous round of cheers. He made a speech in which he recalled the actions around Santiago and described in detail how he and his companions sank the Merrimac.

The Proximity Church.

Work on the new Methodist church at Proximity Mills is progressing nicely and Pastor Rowe is much encouraged. The building occupies a splendid site which was donated by Mr. Cone. It is a corner lot on a pretty elevation and a most desirable location for a church. The building, Mr. Rowe tells us, will seat about four hundred people comfortably. It is the purpose of the building committee to push the work until Proximity church is completed.

SHAFTER'S MEN GOING NORTH

Orders Were Issued to the General Yesterday,

FIRST TRANSPORT SAILED TODAY

Massachusetts Officers Refused to Salute Negro Officers—A Scouting Party Fired on.

Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Santiago, August 4—Gen. Shafter has received orders to remove the entire army north immediately. The six transports here will take the first shipment, embarkation probably beginning tomorrow.

There is great rejoicing among the troops and there is great bustle and activity at headquarters making preparations to comply with the orders. Other transports are expected to arrive soon and a dozen vessels will in a short while be carrying soldiers back to the United States.

The first troops to go will be the Third and Sixth Regiments of cavalry; the First regular and the First volunteer cavalry, which includes the Rough Riders. General Wood will remain behind as military governor.

Those who are suffering with yellow fever and other infectious diseases will be left behind, and every precaution will be taken to provide for a safe and healthy arival of the troops in the United States.

The volunteers will be transported in the following order: The First Illinois; First District of Columbia; Seventy-first New York; Ninth and Second Massachusetts; Eighth Illinois: Thirty-third and Thirth-fourth Michigan.

FIRST TRANSPORT LEAVES.

Washington, August 5—The first transport containing soldiers of General Shafter's army at Santiago, has already left for Montauk Point, Long Island. There are eight more transports off Santiago which will be loaded immediately with troops. The entire command should be transferred by the 20th instant. The first Immune regiment has reached Santiago and four other are expected to arrive soon.

WOULD QUICKLY SURRENDER.

Santiago, August 5—The warships Massachusetts and Dixie arrived this afternoon and started coaling. The commander of the Wilmington reports the Spaniards demoralized at Manzillo, and says they would quickly surrender to the American forces.

AWAITING ORDERS.

Fajardo, August 5—American warships are rendezvousing here awaiting orders. The Spanish have erected a small battery to oppose the landing of troops. They will not open the fire so the warships are not shelling.

WHY DID THEY RESIGN?

Washington, August 5—Secretary Alger has sent the following despatch to General Miles:

"The secretary of war desires to know if there is any unusual cause or incident connected with the reported resignation of the colonel and lieutenent colonel of the Sixth Massachusetts. The inquiry is made at the instance of the governor of Massachusetts. (Signed) Corbin.

THE IROQUIS ARRIVES.

New York, August 5—The transport Iroquis arrived here this morning from Santiago having on board twenty-one officers and newspaper correspondents.

The transport Lee has also arrived with sick and wounded from Santiago.

PORTO RICAN MOVEMENTS.

Arroyo Bay, Evening of the third—The last of General Miles' brigade has just been landed. General Brooke has established headquarters. General Grant's Fourteenth New York is badly needed, but the transport Massachusetts is stuck in the mud at Ponce. It is desired to take Guayamo tomorrow and advance over the mountain to Cayey. Beyond the mountain is Aybonito, where the enemy is concentrating a movement which General Brooke will head off, while the troops on the Ponce road will come up behind.

The Cincinnatti and Gloucester will shell Guayamo and protect the advance of the troops. Resistance is thought to be unlikely until our troops are over the mountains.

The trouble with the Sixth Massachusetts is said to be the outcome of the refusal of the whites to return the salutes of the negro officers.

Gen. Wilson has moved his headquarters from Ponce to Juano Diaz.

SCOUTING PARTY FIRED ON.

Ponce, August 4—Last night a scouting party under Major Reed of the Sixteenth Pennsylvania, was fired on by the Spanish outpost between Juano Diaz and Coamo. The fire was returned and it is believed that one Spaniard was wounded.

LETTER FROM JACKSONVILLE.

Claude Barbee Relates His First Experience in Camp.

Jacksonville, Aug. 3d.

Greensboro Evening Telegram: I arrived here all right Tuesday morning, found a great many boys here whom I knew and they seemed very glad to see me. The first boy I met was Sergeant E. M. Hicks, who was at one time a resident of High Point. He is now with Company C, of Winston. He treated me so nice I joined his company. The captain of our company is one of the finest in the camp, Capt. J. C. Bessent; he is a jolly one, too.

There are thirteen regiments here now, and several more coming.

Several of the boys have fever, but none of the North Carolina regiment have died. The troops who have been in camp at Miama are being moved here on account of their health.

There is a rumor here that the First N. C. V. will be moved to Asheville, N. C. We only hope they will move us up there, as it is a little warm here.

The first meal I ate down here was yesterday at noon. When the bugle blew for dinner I was given a cup, pan and spoon, all tin, and marched down to the company kitchen where I was given biscuits, beef and Irish potatoes. For supper I got coffee, hard tack and hash. Our breakfast fare was a little better. For our feather bed we get two blankets spread upon the ground and one to cover with. We should not grumble at this at all, because we think Uncle Sam is supplying his boys' needs in every way as well as might be expected. The man who has never had better at home is the one who is doing the kicking.

My first experience in drilling was with about twenty recruits instructed by Sergeant Hicks. It seemed very awkward, but our instructor was an experinced man in instructing and we came out all right.

The men have to drill only three hours a day. One of the boys came along just now and said: "Are you writing for a paper, mister?" "Yes," I replied. He said tell them that the North Carolina regiment was disappointed very much, as they are afraid peace will be declared and they will not get to go to Cuba.

Sam Morgan, who used to run a taffy tent in High Point, is the best shot in the company.

I will tell you all about camp life when I get use to it.

Yours truly,
Claude Barbee.

An official dispatch from Havana to Madid says: "The Raboya battalion has defeated a large band of insurgents near Monte Verde, province of Matanzas."

AGUINALDO TO WILDMAN.

He Says He Has "Read In The Newspapers."

AMERICA NOT FRANK WITH HIM

Says He Can Take Manila But What's The Use? Not a Fool And a Rogue Both.

By Cable THE TELEGRAM.

Hong Kong, Aug. 5—The following has been received by Consul Wildman from Cavite:

"I have read in the newspapers that I am getting the big head and am not behaving as I promised. In reply to this I wish to ask why should the Americans expect me to outline a policy for the present or future and fight blindly for her interests when the Americans will not be frank with me and tell me am I fighting for annexation, protection or independence? This is for Americans to say and not for me. I can take Manila, as I have defeated the Spanish elsewhere, but what would be the use? If the Americans take Manila, I can save my men and arms for what the future has in store. Now, good friend, believe me, I am not both a fool and a rogue. The interests of my people are as sacred to me as the interests of your people are to you.

(Signed) Aguinaldo."

The Norfolk Landmarks asks: Isn't it rather illogical to talk about the "retention" of the Philippines? How are we going to "retain" what we haven't got?

It doesn't look like immediate peace when the press despatches are announcing that "the decisive battle of the Porto Rican campaign is expected to be fought in a day or two."

In the speech of Mr. A. L. Brooks at Madison the other day the speaker told of some republicans accusing the democrats of stealing the populist platform. The republicans have frequently made this charge and seem to derive a great deal of satisfaction thereby. "But" said Mr. Brooks, "let me tell you, my republican friend, you can't accuse anybody of stealing your plaiform. The man who would steal it would drop it like a hot potato as soon as he found out what he had." A roar of applause followed.

The newspapers seem to be just getting hold of the fact that under the management of Hon. A. Leazar the penintentiary reached the point where it was self-sustaining. The farms about which Mr. Mewborne complains and says the democrats made a bad bargain, were shown in Mr. Leazar's report to be a source of revenue. They were properly managed, the results reported as the law requires. How is it now? The people would like to know, and they have a right to know; but the officials say it is none of the people's business.

There has been some complaint that the southern soldier has not been allowed to go to the front, charging that the authorities do not intend for him to win any glory in this war. The southern soldier is to be congratulated, and it is a matter of regret that the northern boys were ever sent to win laurels if they are forced to lose all by laying down their lives in a yellow fever camp. It would have been infinitely better and more humanity would have been displayed had the Cubans simply been furnished with powder, shot and bread and all this horrible business put off till the fever season is over.

The reports of the suffering in the army in Cuba are distressing. Indeed, it is claimed that practically all of General Shafter's army has fever, and only about ten per cent of them are fit for active duty. All the boys want to come home, and Theodore Roosevelt takes the initiative in an effort to move the troops north. If reports are true more men have already died from fever than were killed in the battle around Santiago. What is the object in keeping troops at Santiago? There seems to be no necessity or demand for it; and if there was, of what service can a sick army be? The authorities have made a botch of it after all. It is heart-sickening to see the flower of American manhood thus unnecessarily forced to undergo the suffering and death to which our army is subjected.

SWORD OF THE REVOLUTION.

The First Captured—Mentioned in Col. Mebane's Will.

In looking over some old wills recently Col. H. C. Long, of Chatham, came across the will of Col. John Mebane, which has this very interesting historic item:

"I give and bequeath to my nephew, Dr. John A. Mebane, of Greensboro, my silver hilted sword, it being the first taken from the British in North Carolina during the revolutionary war, by my brother, Robert M. Mebane."

When, where and under what circumstances this sword was taken is an interesting question to the student of North Carolina history, says the Pittsboro Record. Mr. Caruthers says that it was somewhere near Wilmington.

This Colonel John Mebane lived in Chatham county and represented Chatham in the house of commons of the general assembly from 1790 successively to 1811. He had a son, if we are not mistaken, who married a daughter of Col. Jack Alston, of this county. The eloquent Samuel Hill, of Nash, who was at one time speaker of the house in this state, was a grandson of Colonel John Mebane and is mentioned in his will. Colonel Robert Mebane, who is mentioned in the will as having captured the first British sword, was said to be a very brave man. Chatham has some very interesting history in connection with him. On his way from the Cape Fear section to the northern part of the county he came upon a noted Tory and horse thief, Caruthers tells us, by the name of Henry Hightower. When in striking distance Hightower turned and shot him. The scene of this tragedy was in Williams township of this county. Sheriff Jenkins tells us that the house to which Mebane was carried was on the Chapel Hill road near where J. B. Riggsbee now lives. The house has been torn down, but Sheriff Jenkins says he has often heard his grandmother speak of it, and tell of the blood stains on the floor which could not be washed off.

LETTER FROM FORT MACON.

The Colored Troops are Behaving Themselves Well.

Fort Macon, N. C., Aug. 3.

Editor Telegram: I've received several letters asking for statements regarding the condition of the Greensboro soldiers here and I beg to state through the columns of your paper in reply that every soldier from Greensboro obeys perfectly and not one has been punished for disobedience.

To give justice to the other soldiers here I further state that out of nearly 1,100 only three are under discipline and they for petty offences.

Three men are now sick in the hospital. Neither of them are from Greensboro.

Chief Logan's band is doing excellent work. His bass drummer is a little green yet.

Greensboro is well represented here, having two commissioned officers, three non-commissioned staff officers and eight non commissioned company officers.

A great religious work is being done in the Y. M. C. A. tent here, along the religious, social and intellectual lines for all the men. For the past ten days special meetings have been held and more than one hundred have professed Christ. Nothing but military and religious topics are discussed. Prof. N. C. Bruce is working hard for Christ in the Y. M. C. A.

About one month ago my child which is fifteen months old, had an attack of diarrhoea accompanied by vomiting. I gave it such remedies as are usually given in such cases, but as nothing gave relief we sent for a physician and it was under his care for a week. At this time the child had been sick for about ten days and was having about twenty-five operations of the bowels every twelve hours, and we were convinced that unless it soon obtained relief it would not live. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera, Diarrhoea Remedy was recommended, and I decided to try it. I soon noticed a change for the better; by its continued use a complete cure was brought about and it is now perfectly healthy.—C. L. Boggs, Stumptown, Gilmer Co., W. Va. For sale by C. E. Holton.

Tumor In the Breast Cured

Six or seven years ago I had a lump so known to come in my breast which made it swell so much that it became so hard I could not make a dent in the breast. It was so painful and caused me to suffer so that some nights I could hardly turn in the bed or rest. Nothing did me any good, and I was very uneasy, not knowing how it would terminate. I used one-half dozen bottles of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy, without stopping on it, and it made a perfect cure of me. The lump disappeared gradually and I have never had any trouble from it since.

The Colored Excursion.

The colored Sunday school excursion to Danville left this morning about 9:15 o'clock with a good crowd on board. There were five well filled passenger coaches, of course a refreshment car which had the usual number of watermelons. This guarantees the success of the excursion, but one fellow who probably never sat in the Bible class at Sunday school had a gallon jug of wine. As he was crossing the Winston train to elude the manager of the excursion and get his jug on the train it struck the step and wine flew in all directions. With a few exceptions it was a most orderly and respectable crowd and will no doubt behave themselves creditably in the "Tobacco City."

Spirit of Prophecy.

The spirit of prophecy is upon us. Hear! At least five democratic mass meetings were held in the state Wednesday. The reports to this and other papers tell that the attendance was good at each place and that the people were attentive listeners. The synopses of the speeches show that the speakers told the people the right things and told them straight; and the prophecy as aforesaid is that if the boys keep up this lick until election day we will carry the state in a whirl.—Charlotte Observer.

ROOSEVELT'S HEAD SWELLS.

He Thinks The Rough Riders Beat The Band.

Washington, August 4—The following correspondence has passed between Colonel Roosevelt and Secretary Alger:

"Santiago, July 23rd, 1898.

"My Dear Mr. Secretary:

"I am writing with the knowledge and approval of General Wheeler:

"We earnestly hope that you will send us, most of the regulars, and at any rate the cavalry division, including the Rough Riders, who are as good as any regulars and three times as good as any state troops, to Porto Rico. There are 1,800 effective men in this division; if those who were left behind were joined to them, we could land at Porto Rico, in this cavalry division, close to 4,000 men who would be worth, easily, any 10,000 national guards armed with black powder Springfield or other archaic weapons.

Very respectfully,
[Signed] Theodore Roosevelt."

ALGER CALLS HIM DOWN.

The following reply was cabled to Colonel Roosevelt today:

"Your letter of the 23rd is received. The regular army, the volunteer army and the Rough Riders have done well but I suggest that, unless you want to spoil the effects and glory of your victory, you make no invidious comparisons. The Rough Riders are no better than other volunteers. They had an advantage in their arms for which they ought to be very grateful.

[Signed] "R. A. Alger,
"Secretary of War."

The South Has One.

The United States Commissioner of Education in his official classification of the colleges of the country in his last report page 1994, places the Randolph-Macon Woman's College at Lynchburg, Va., in Division A. with Vassar, Wellesley and eleven other high-grade colleges for women. There are four in the east, seven in the north and two in the west. The statistics show that our representative though the youngest stands well up in the list as to resources.

Senator Daniel's Views.

A Washington special to the New York World says: Speaking of the probabilities of peace between the United States and Spain, Senator John W. Daniel, a member of the committee on foreign relations said tonight:

"The indications tonight are that the curtain has been rung down on the last act of war between this government and Spain.

"The peace propositions demanded by this country, as outlined by the press, meet with my approval.

"I do not believe, however, that it will be for the best interests of the country to retain a large slice of the Philippines. The least we have to do with those far away islands the better. It is all very well that we should have a coaling and a naval station there, but when this has been secured my opinion is that we should withdraw.'

We have been shown a letter to Mr. J. H. West from the Southern railway in which they say that first-class accommodations will be given for the coming excursion—if possible, Pullman cars will be provided. They say they will spare no pains to make the equipment first-class and insure to all who go a most delightful and pleasant trip.

That Nuisance.

The muddy, filthy place on South Elm street, to which we have called frequent attention had caused the C. F. & Y. V. track to sink until yesterday a force of hands were set to work to raise it. The water has continually stood along the track all summer, and is a nuisance to everybody, railroad people included.

Yes, Yes.

The camp of the Second North Carolina Regiment at St. Simon's Island has been named Camp John B. Gordon. That is quite an improvement upon Camp Dan Russell, as it was at Raleigh.—Charlotte Observer.

They advertise a line of Plant's finest $2.50 chocolate kid, laced shoes at $1.98 pair and a line of dark tan laced shoes, almost as fine, at $1.69. The sizes in these are somewhat broken, but by acting promptly you may secure a pair.

Box Full of Drunkenness.

Yesterday afternoon Officer Jordan found a man drunk and asleep in a trash box on the sidewalk on South Elm street below the C. F. & Y. V. railway. He had become so wobbly that he could no longer stand and took a seat, as he thought, on the box; but there was no cover on it and in he went, filling the box "comfortably" full. In a few moments he was asleep and totally oblivious of the shameful and disgusting sight he presented to passersby. Officer Jordan called a dray and carried him to a more appropriate if not more comfortable lodging. He was too drunk to give his name.
